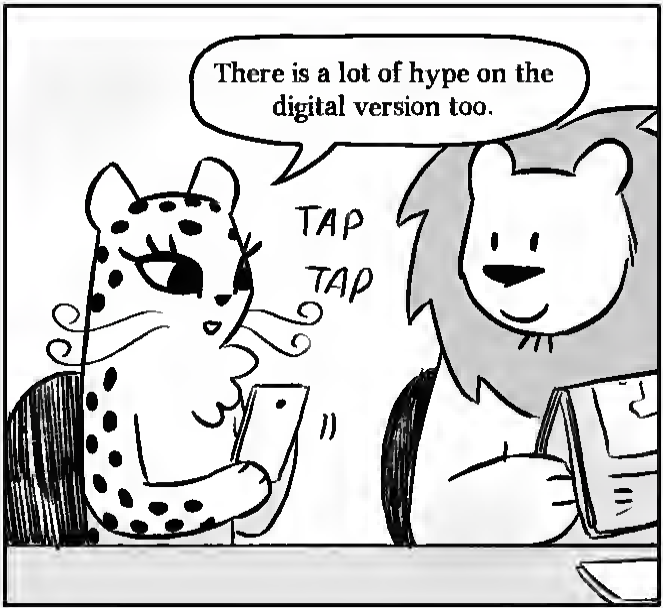
Polar Bear Makeover

The reaction of this month's Trending Topic is great!
TRENDING



There is a lot of hype on the digital version too.

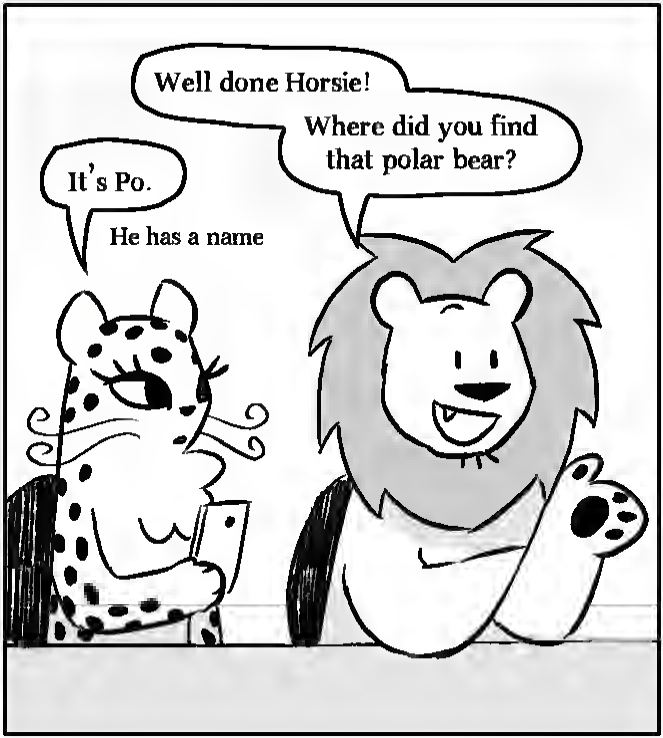
Hey, stop reading the drama in the comments...
It's so funny!
Someone said the polar bear is fake and he dyed himself white!
haha ha!



Well done Horsie!
Where did you find that polar bear?
It's Po.
He has a name

Po is the homeless polar bear we often see outside our building.
Haven't you seen him before?

Oh right!
Now I remember!
I talk to too many animals everyday
HOME
He's a very nice bear too.

Great! We can interview him more for the rest of the month!

I'll ask Leo about hiring Po after the meeting, it's better to ask in private...
Of course.

How about we hire Po as the intern?

What?

But...he's homeless!
Don't discriminate animals without a home.

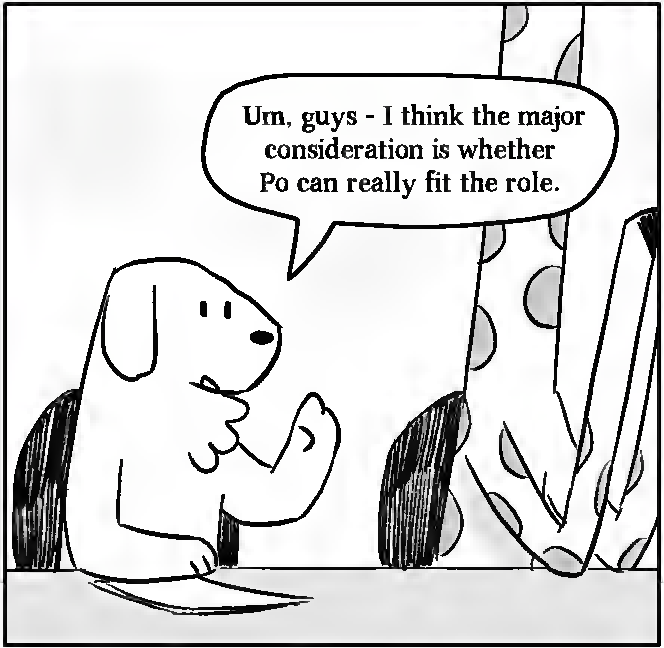
He shouldn't have the qualifications we need.

But Horsie said he's nice!
Why don't we give him a chance?

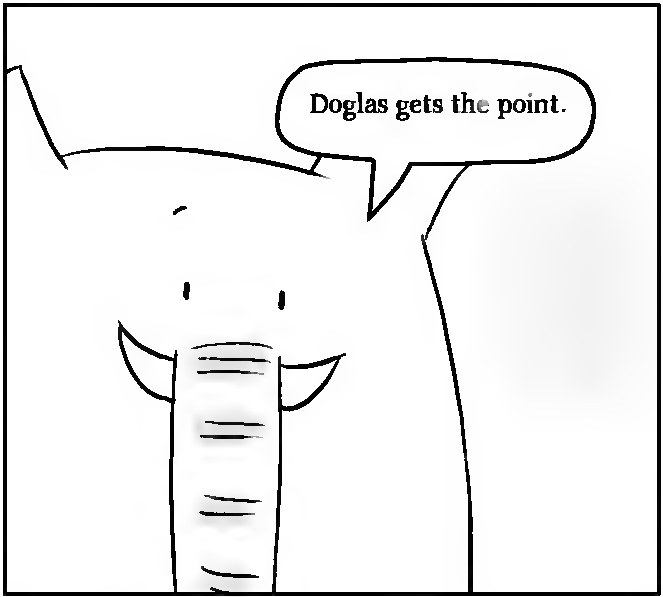
The polar bear must be dirty and smells horrible!
How can he work in an office like that?!

He can be clean again!
But where he's gonna sleep? On the streets?
sigh..

Is our office air con cold enough for him?
But I don't want to catch a cold again...
blah blah blah blah b

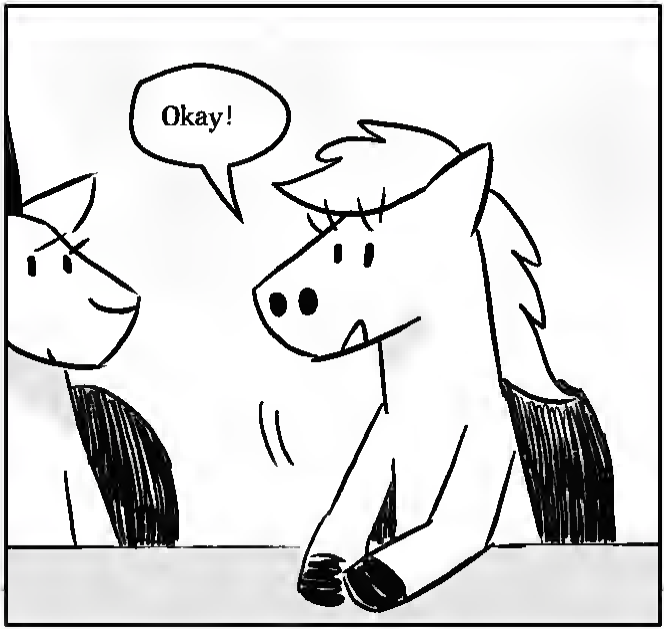


Um, guys - I think the major consideration is whether Po can really fit the role.



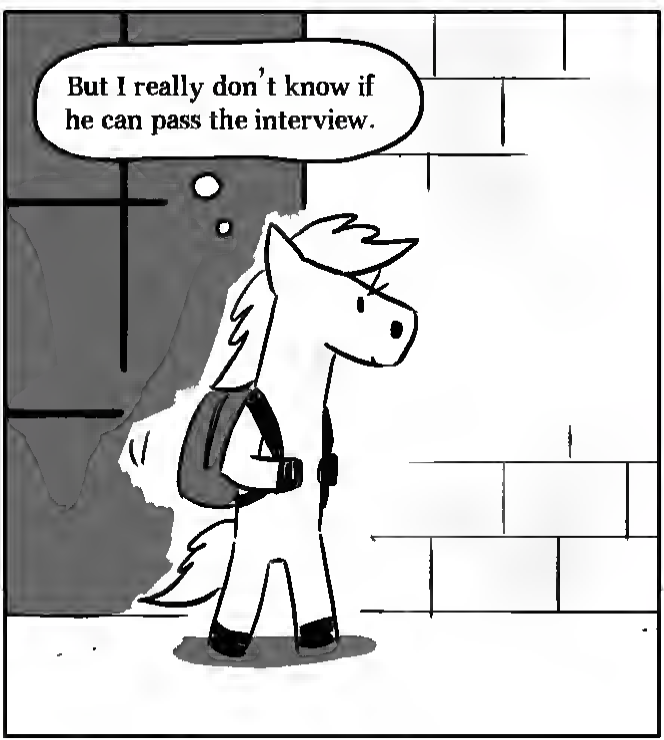
Doglas gets the point.

Well then, we'll know when we interview him.
Horsie, bring Po to meet us next time!



Okay!

ROAR STREET JOUR
Yes!
We might hire Po!



But I really don't know if he can pass the interview.

I don't even know if he went to college...
Are there even colleges in the Arctic?

Hi Po!
Good to see you!
Good evening
Horsie.

Do you have any plans tonight?

I guess not? I'll sit here and read the newspaper.

Good! Follow me,
I've got plans for you.

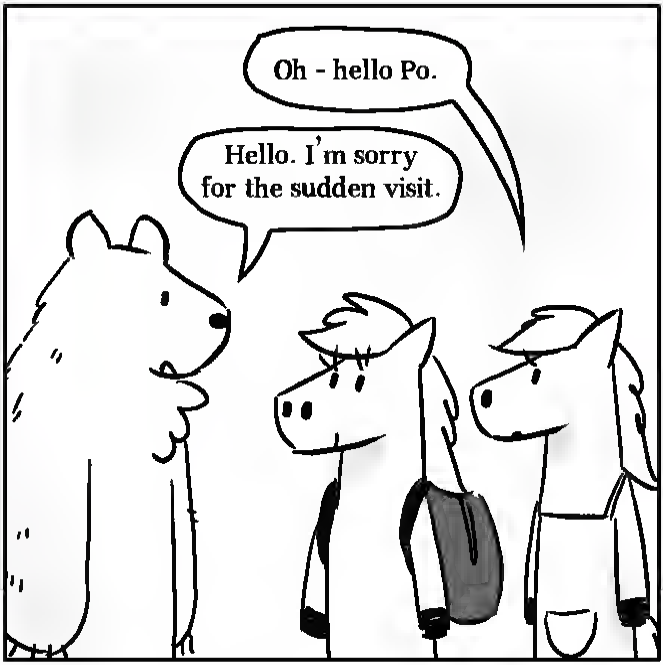
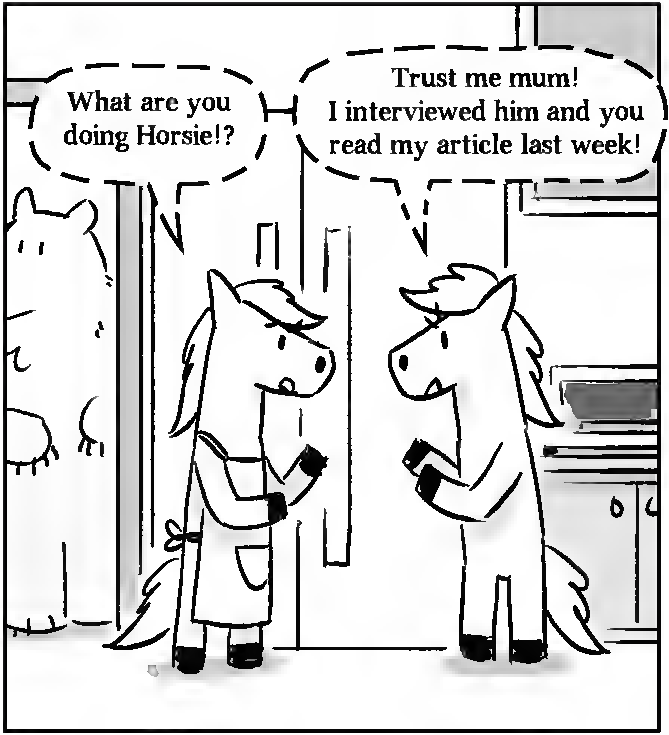
Where are we going?
Hey mum, I'm coming back for dinner.
Can you set an extra seat? I'm bringing a guest.

I'm back!

Hi mum, this is Po the polar bear, the star of my articles!
Hi Horsie.



Oh - hello Po.
Hello. I'm sorry for the sudden visit.



What are you doing Horsie!?
Trust me mum! I interviewed him and you read my article last week!

I need to give him a makeover and help him get the job!
But he's still a stranger! Be careful!

It's time for a ...

MAKEOVER!!

Go to the guest bathroom and use the shower Po!
I bought stuff for you to clean up.

Use these!
BEAR
SHAMP MEN

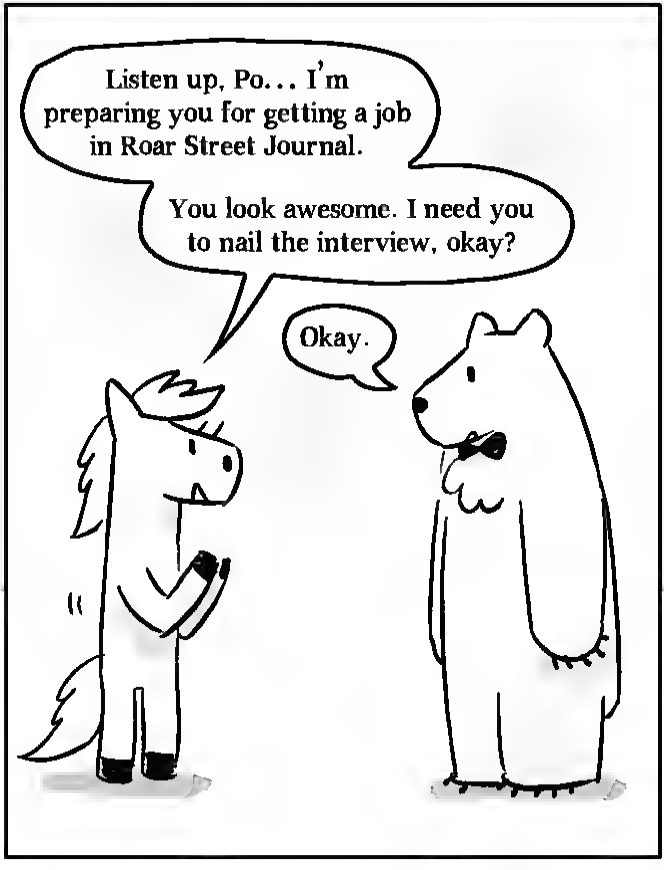
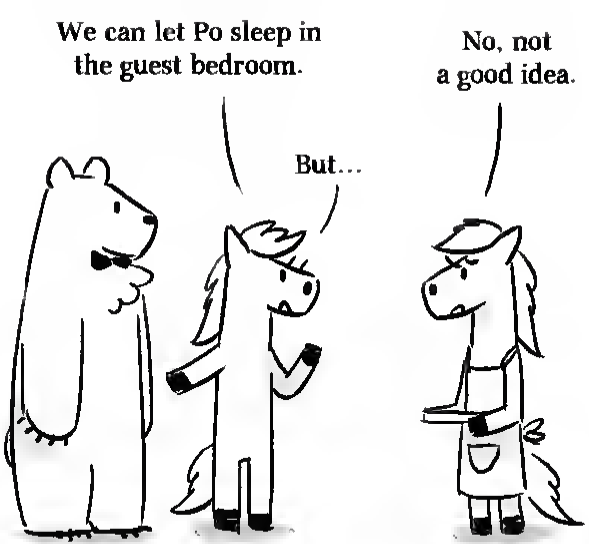
Ta-da!

You look... spectacular!
I'm so proud of myself!



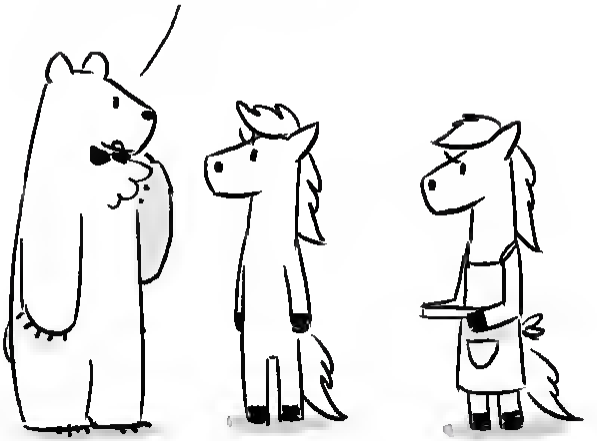
Listen up, Po... I'm preparing you for getting a job in Roar Street Journal.
You look awesome. I need you to nail the interview, okay?
Okay.

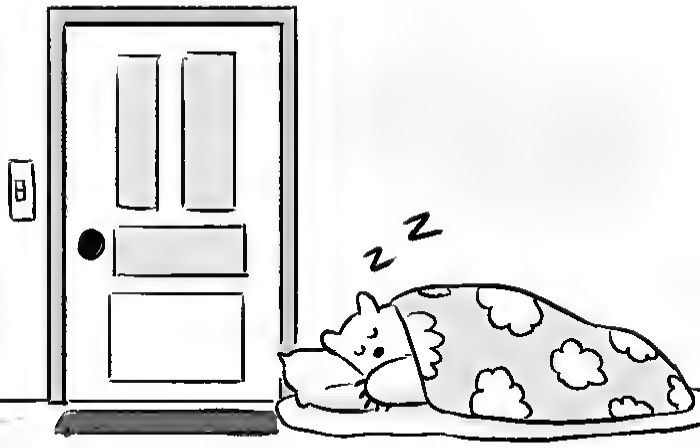
ROAR STREET JOURNAL



We can let Po sleep in the guest bedroom.
But...
No, not a good idea.

I will sleep outside, I'm not used to sleeping on a bed.





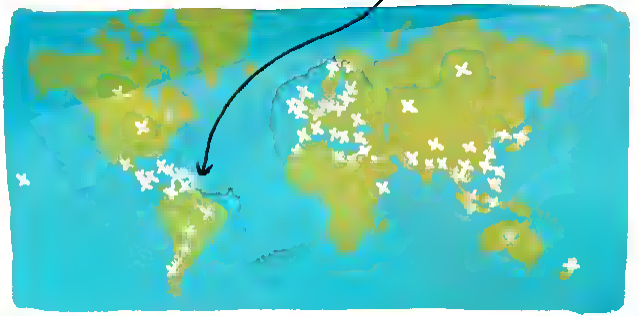
Animals Around The World

#65

Kareyy

Hey Bonnie, my name is Karey and I am from the small island of Grenada in the West Indies (Caribbean). We don't have a national animal per say, however I'd really like if you could draw our national bird, the leptotila welsi.

Readers from Grenada!



The Grendada Dove (Leptotila wellsi) is one of the most endangered bird in the world and is only found on Grenada. Because it evolved without ground predators, it doesn't fly much and walk on the ground often.
